THE WORLD GRAIN TRADE

- world exports
- world imports
- U. S. exports under government programs

FAS-M-53

U. S. Department of Agriculture

Explanatory Notes

1. Data are expressed in thousands of metric tons, except where otherwise specified, based upon crop year (July 1-June 30) movements.

2. Data were obtained from U.S. agricultural attache reports, FAO, Economic Commission for Europe, and official trade statistics.

3. Data on flour trade are expressed in terms of wheat equivalent.

4. Data covering intra-Eastern European trade are only partially complete as indicated by various footnotes to individual tables. Moreover, data covering trade within this area for 1956-57 and 1957-58 take into account new statistics compiled by the Economic Commission for Europe and thus are more complete and not entirely comparable to corresponding data for 1951-55 through 1955-56.

5. Grain trade data include exports of products in grain equivalent.

6. Data for 1956-57 have been revised. Those for 1957-58 are preliminary and subject to revision.

(Earlier data on exports /1951-52 through 1955-56/ are presented in FAS-M-22, International Trade in Bread and Coarse Grains, July 1957.)

1/ All data except those noted by footnote represent exports of sorghum and millet, January-June, 1958, and millet only during October-December 1957. 2/ Exports of East European countries are based on import data obtained from recipient countries. 3/ Less than 50 metric tons. 4/ Based on imports of sorghum and millet from Argentina. 5/ No statistics available covering trade between East European countries (Albania, Czechoslovakia, East Germany, Hungary, Poland, and Rumania.)

PART II.— WORLD IMPORTS

The tables in this section are based on arrivals in importing countries, thus data in these tables will not necessarily coincide with that given for correesponding countries in Parts I and III, which show exports based on shipments. These differences are primarily attributable to (1) resale and re-routing of occasional shipments to third country destinations, and (2) the necessary time lag between date of shipment and date of arrival and the relationship of this lag to the specific July 1-June 30 date limitation of an individual marketing year.

PART III.—U. S. EXPORTS UNDER GOVERNMENT PROGRAMS

Reports of exports obtained from the Bureau of the Census, Department of Commerce, provided the breakdown of shipments to individual countries. Data showing shipments under the individual government programs, however, were obtained from the respective agencies responsible for their administration.

Special government export programs are: sales for foreign currencies; Public Law 480, Title I; Public Law 480, Title II, donations by the U.S. Government for famine or other emergency relief; Public Law 480, Title III, barter—quantities bartered by the U.S. Government in exchange for strategic stockpile materials; Public Law 665, Section 402, sales for foreign currencies or under special loan terms by the International Cooperation Administration; Public Law 480, Title III, Section 416, foreign donations of U.S. private relief and charity organizations, financed by the U.S. Government.

"Others", a residual, i.e. total exports less the total of shipments made under all of the various government programs for each respective year. This figure shows the amount not financed by government programs and, therefore, is the quantity exported for "cash", or "dollars".

Figures entered under the "Total" column on the wheat export tables represent only wheat and the wheat equivalent of flour exported and do not include exports of wheat flour, milled either wholly or in part from Canadian wheat, and do not include exports of bakery products, prepared flour mixes, cereal foods, durum wheat flour, semolina, or macaroni and macaroni products. Entries in the "Total" column on the coarse grain tables include shipments of seed corn, excluding sweet, corn meal and flour, hominy and grits, corn starch, oatmeal, pearled barley, and barley malt.
